Festival Booth Guidelines

❖ Booths

- All vendors are required to sign a booth application.
- Vendors are considered on a first come first served basis and application priority will be given to businesses that sell Polish products and items related to Polish culture.
- The assignment of booths, number of tables provided, and placement of vendors is at the sole discretion of the Polish Festival Seattle Committee.
- All vendors are required to have their space neat and free of hazards.
- An adult representative of the participating vendor must be present at all times during all operating hours of the Festival.
- Vendors are to refrain from hanging, taping, gluing, stapling, screwing or tacking decorations or other materials onto any Seattle Center facilities equipment.
- Vendor agrees to reimburse Seattle Center or Polish Festival Seattle for any loss or damage occurring to the facility and its contents.
- Set-up and teardown is the sole responsibility of the vendor.

❖ License and Insurance

- License: A Washington State business license and a Seattle City Business License is required for all businesses operating in the city of Seattle.
 - If you do not have a City of Seattle Business License, the Festival's Tradeshow license will cover you for the duration of the event at a cost of $10 per vendor.
 - If you would like to obtain a temporary Washington State business license directly, you should contact the Washington State Department of Revenue 1+ month before the show date.
- Each vendor is expected to comply with all local, state, and federal regulations regarding merchandise and sales taxes.
- Insurance: Seattle Center and the Festival accept no insurance liability for vendor goods and services. Vendors concerned about insurance issues are encouraged to pursue individual event insurance coverage.

❖ Utilities

- Existing electrical outlets in the Armory may be used on a case by case basis. You must provide your own electrical cord. Additional outlets will not be provided.
